Dear Sir:-

I write to ask if your son, who was born in 1866 and died, you wrote us, in 1892, at the age of 26, left an heir and estate and was there an administrator or executor appointed in his case, and if so it would be, it seems to me, a simple matter to release any such interest to you.

And, if you please, I wish you would return to me the copy of Policy, No. 29185, mailed you on the 23rd of last month, so that a copy of it may be made - this, to the end of facilitating the payment of claim under it, which we would like to be in a position to do without delay by not being obliged to ask then for the data we now ask for, our not now having which, however, is from no fault of yours, but wholly our fault, and in demonstration that mistakes, like accidents, will happen.

Yours truly,

John H. Nolan

General Agent.
